Where are we?

Inffeldgasse 24/I, 8010 Graz, Austria
Campus Inffeldgasse - BTZ

Current RDM scenario

- Different data formats
- Different data storage locations
- Different documentation types
- + Quality management system
- + Experience in laboratory processes

Data is there but ...

- Hard to find
- Hard to reuse
- Hard to analyse

Target RDM scenario

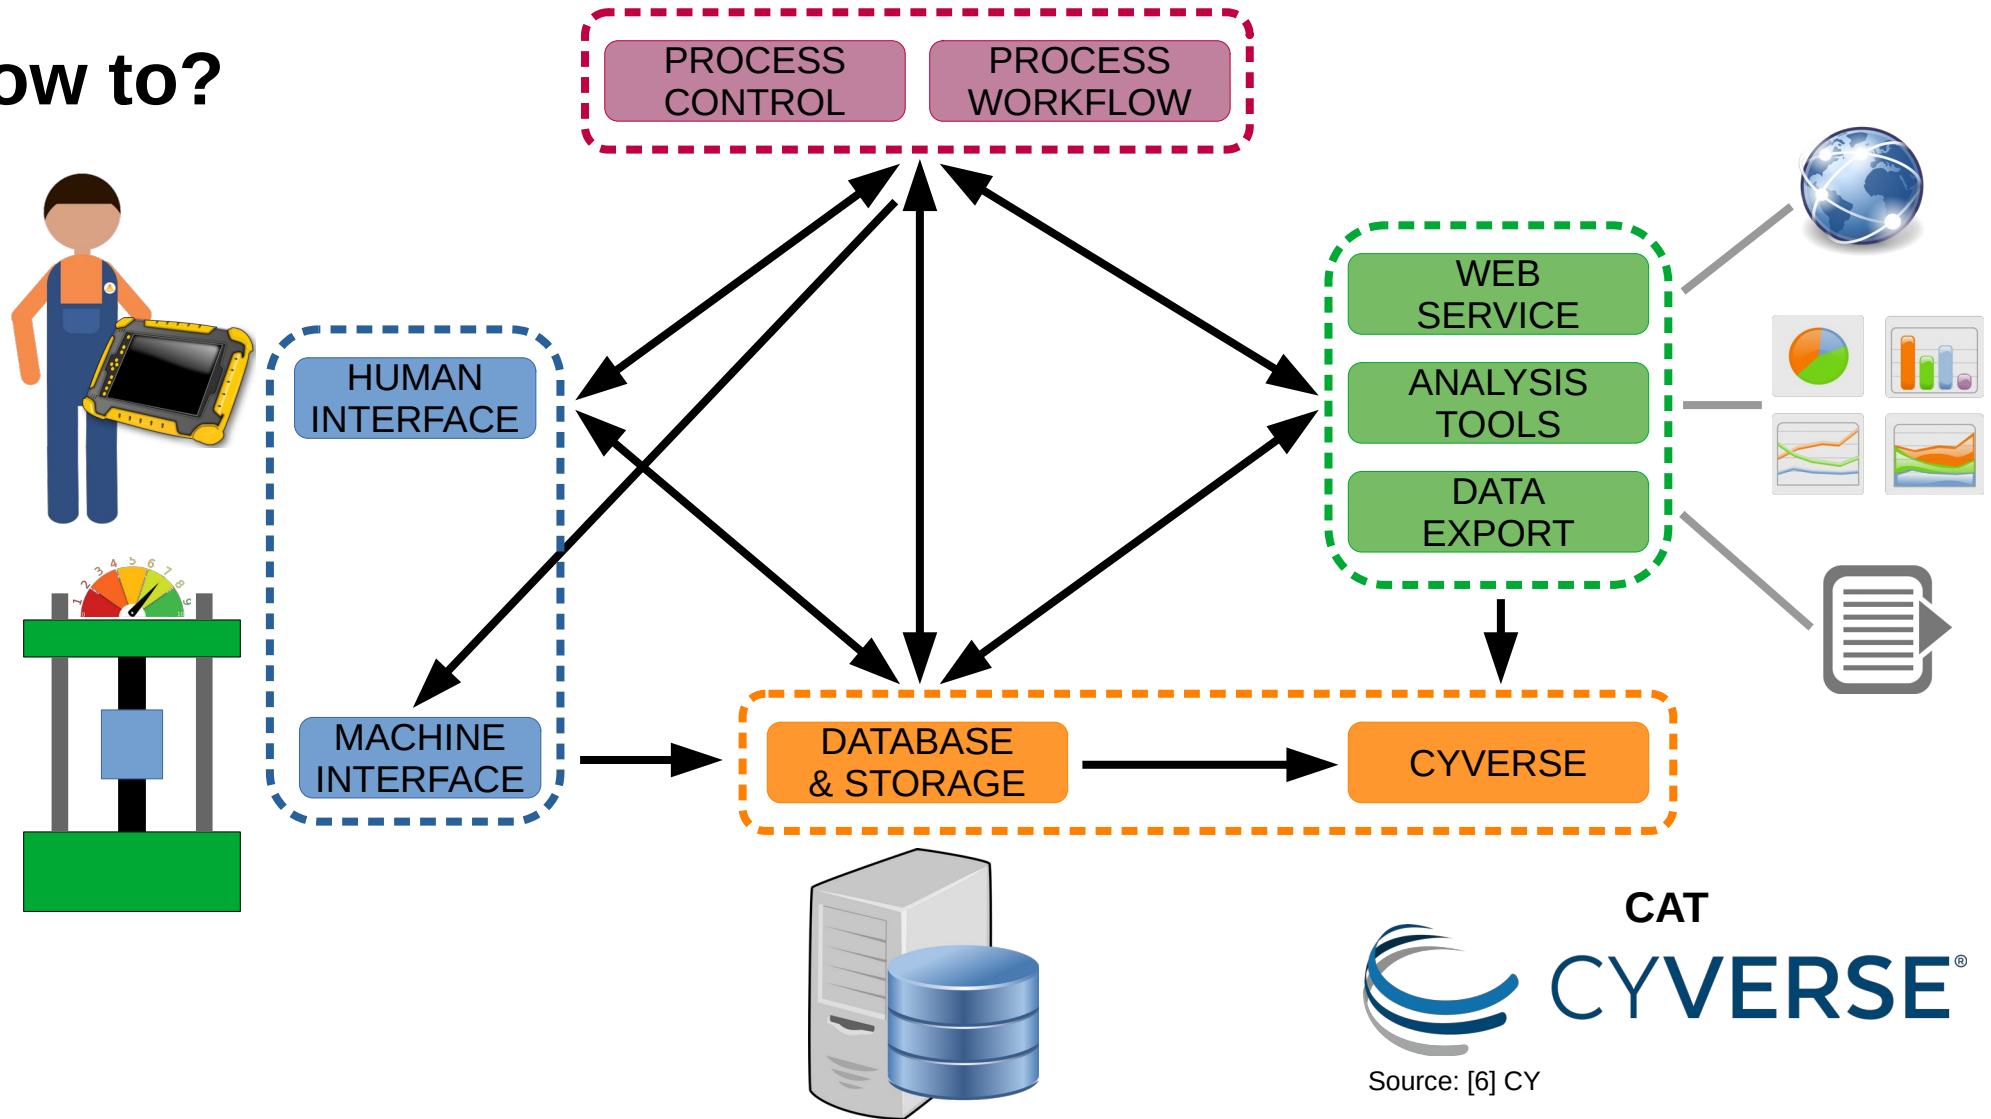

- Unified data formats
- Central data storage location
- Unified documentation system
- Enhanced quality management
- Provide data for research and production
- Long term availability to create a scientific body

Data is there and FAIR

- Findable
- Accessible
- Interoperable
- Reusable

Laboratory Notebook and Database LabNDB

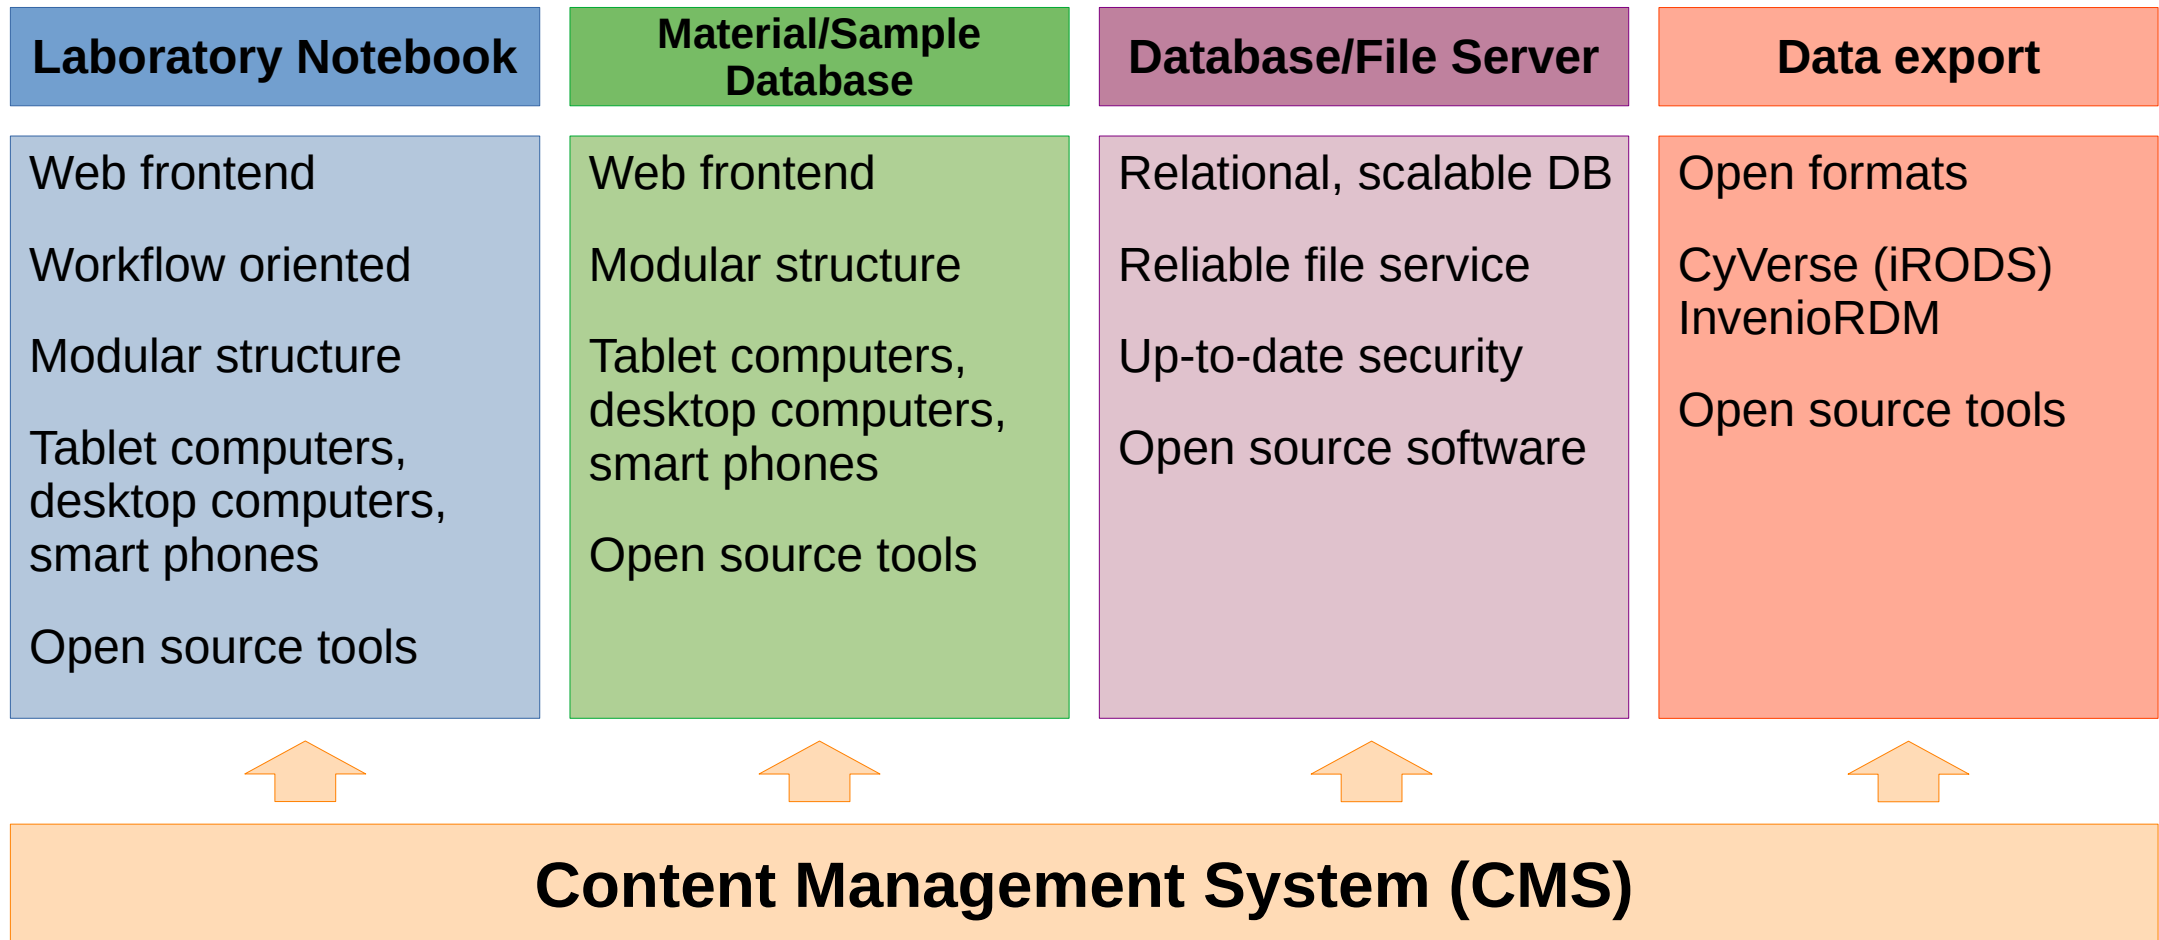

How to?

Laboratory Notebook and Database

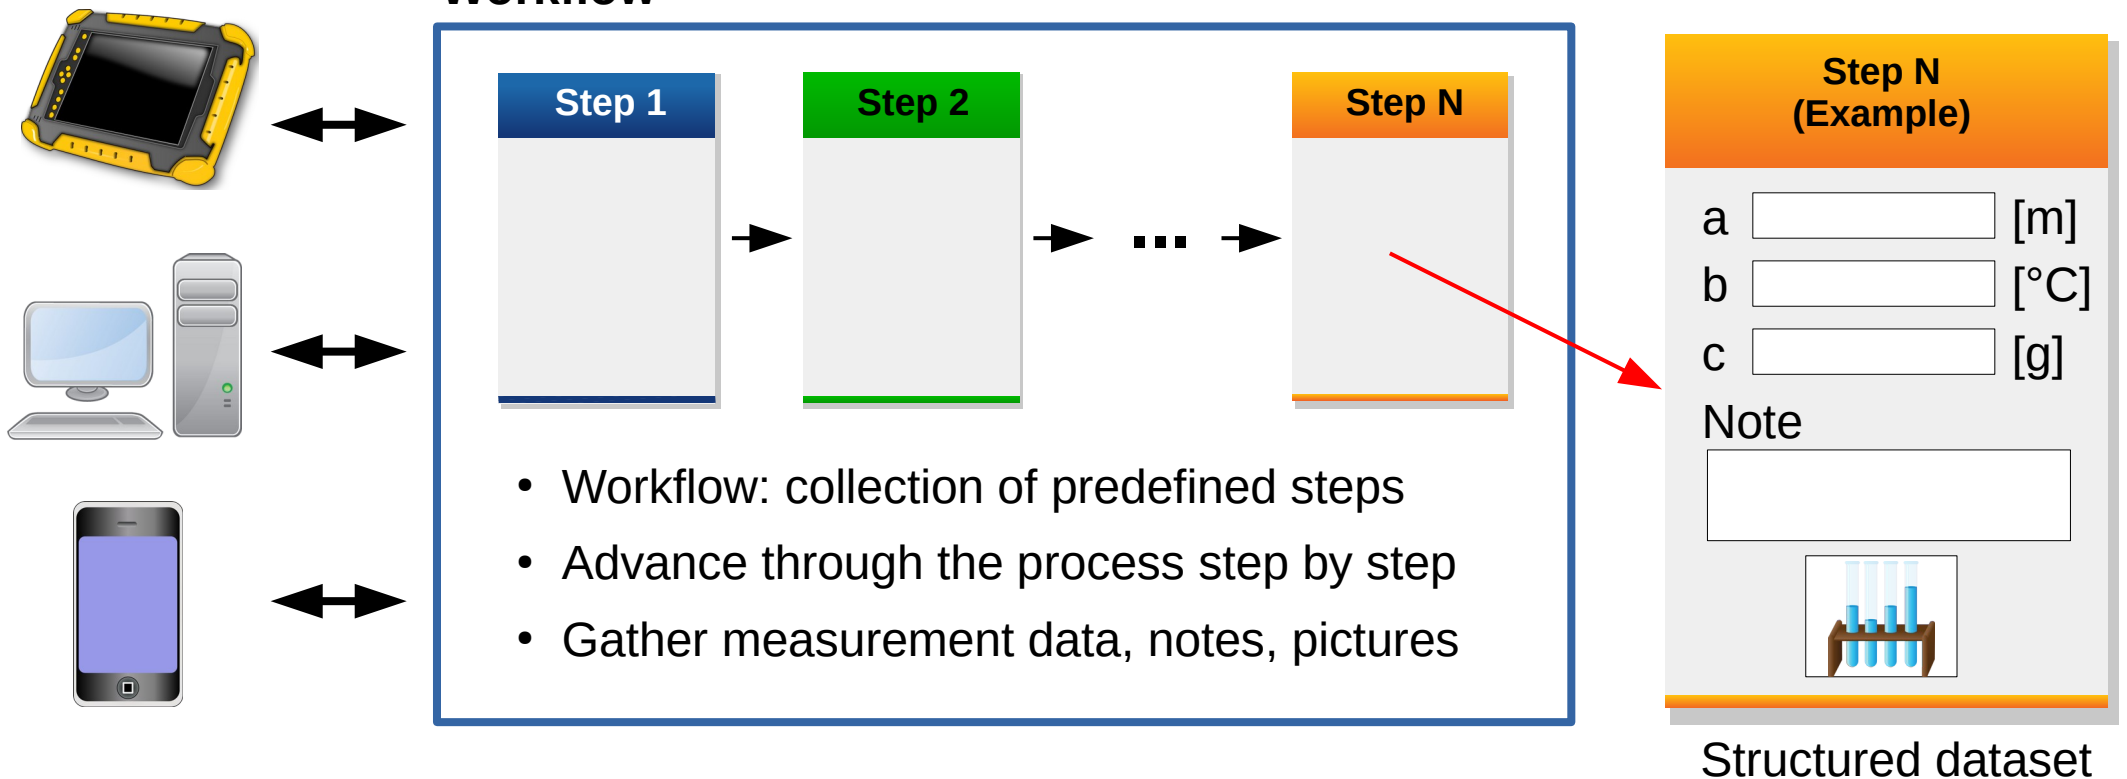

LabNDB

Main components

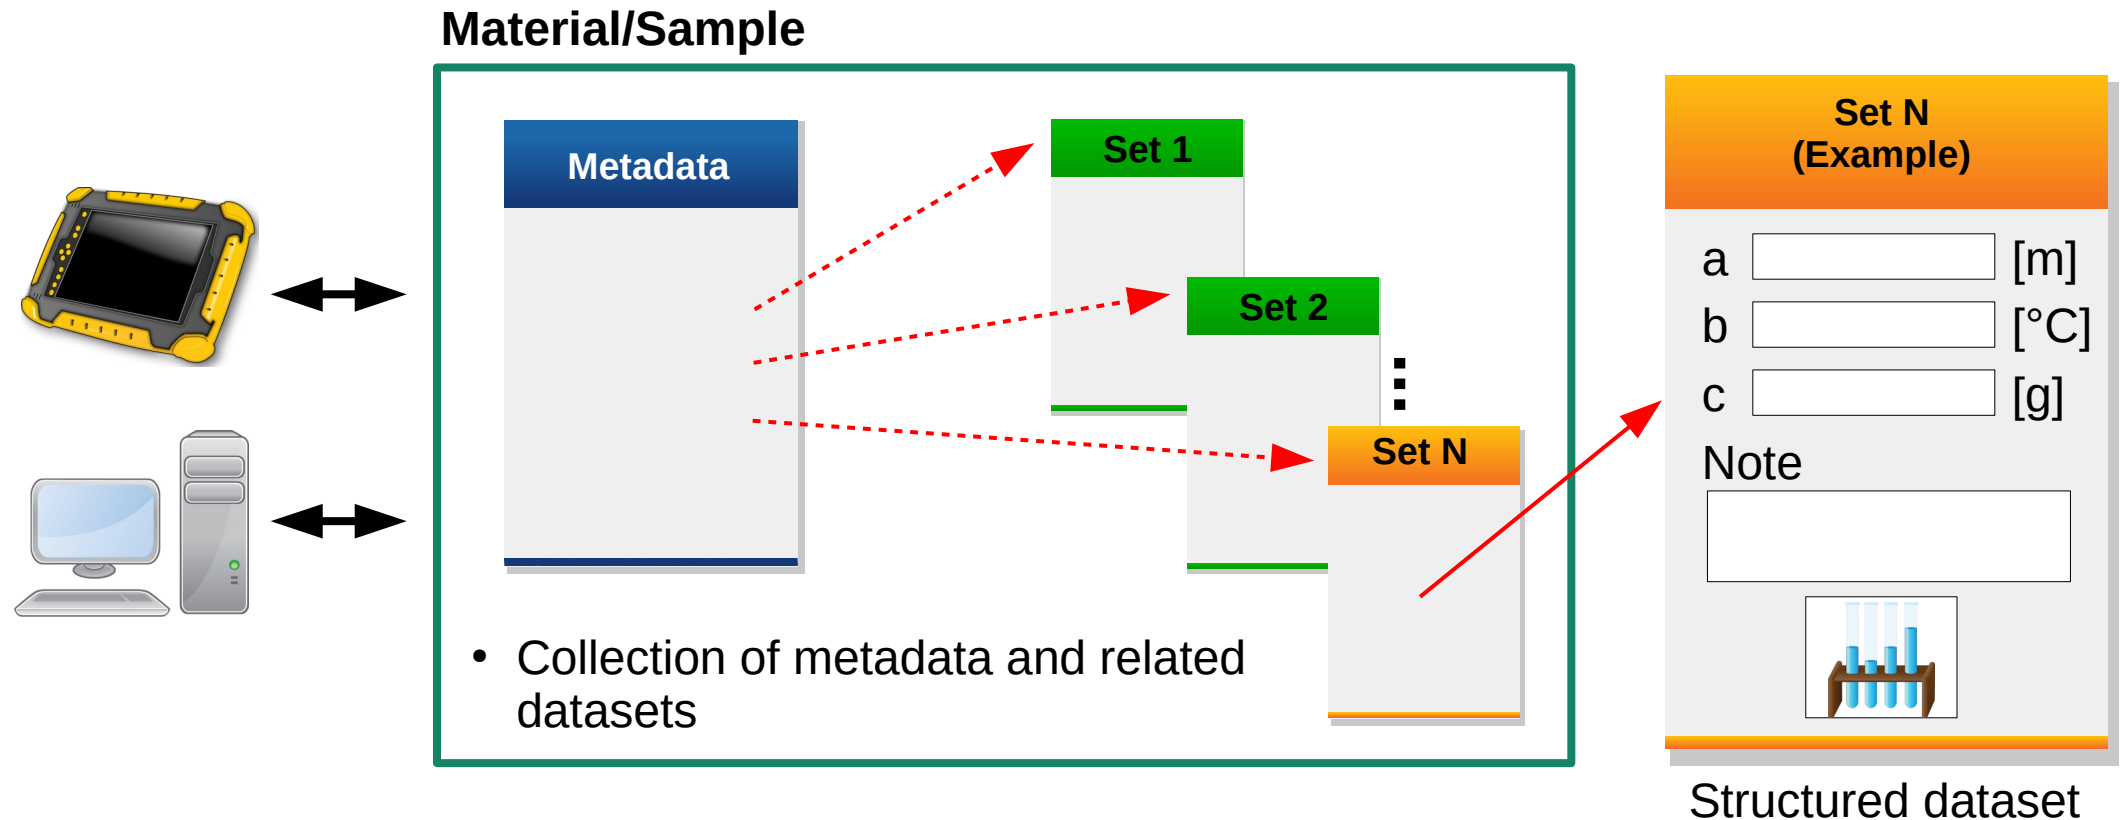

Laboratory Notebook

Workflow

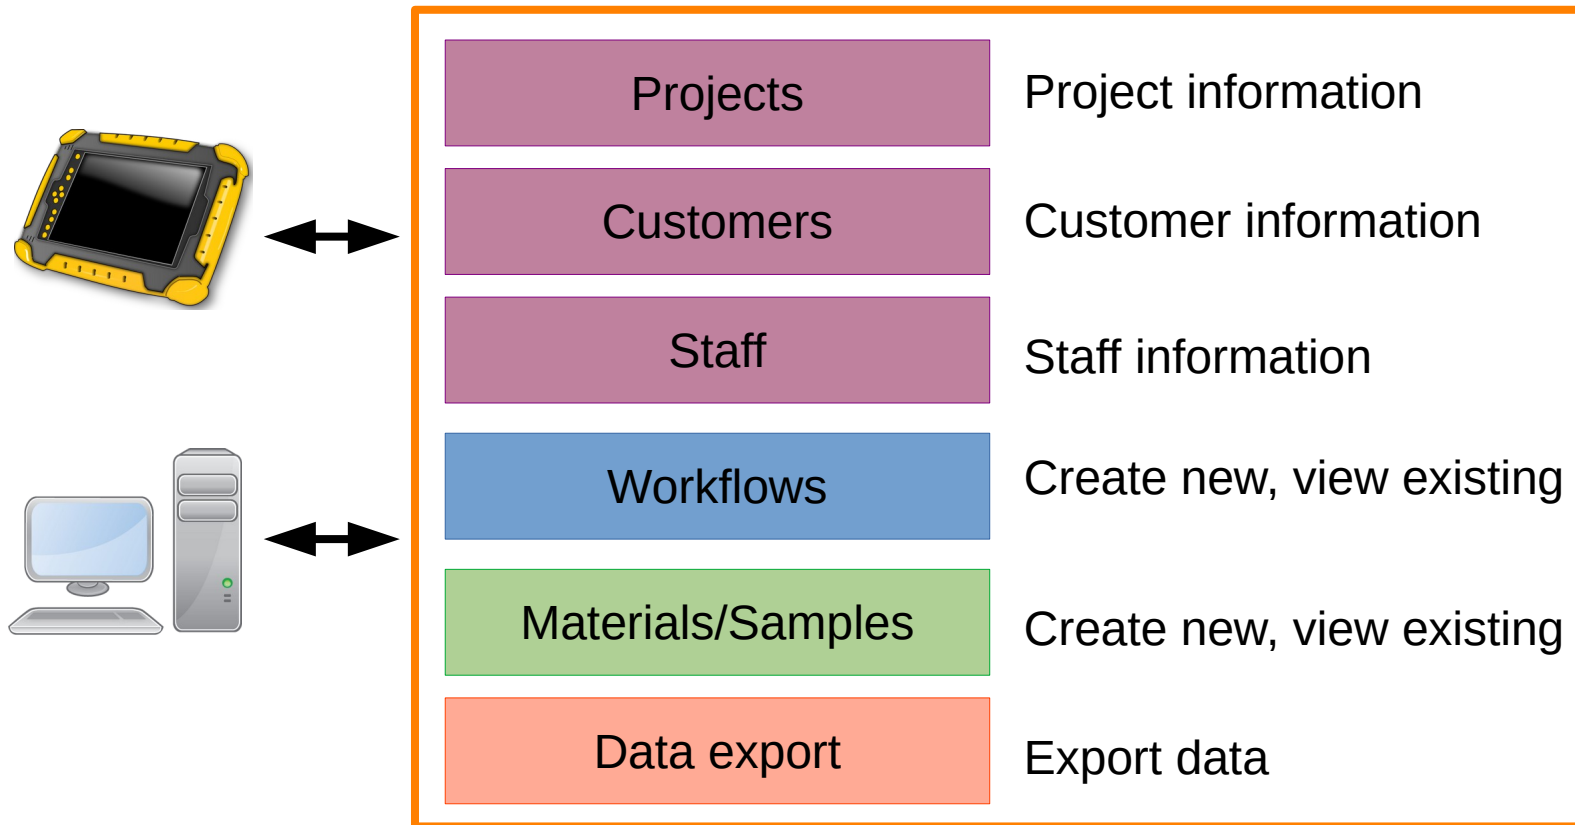

Material/Sample database

Content management system

Management interface

Laboratory Notebook – application example

Compressive strength of a concrete cube

Get sample from customer

Source: [7] C1p

customer, date, what tests

Measure sample dimensions and weight width, height, length, mass, ...

Laboratory Notebook – application example

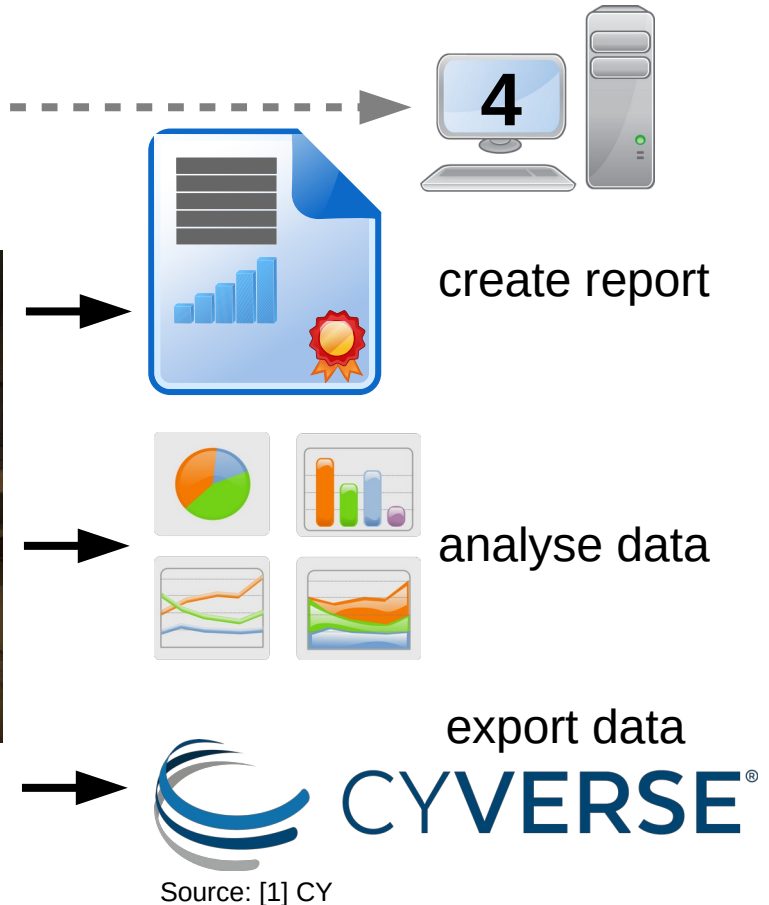

Compressive strength of a concrete cube

Test compressive strength measurement data from test device, photo, notes, ...
